The Real Cost of Staff Absenteeism

Queen's University Pioneers Electrostatic Disinfecting

Welcome to the Fall Edition of the Bunzl Business Insider!

The nights may be longer and the temperature's dropping, but the good news is that hockey and pumpkin spice lattes are back - along with your latest industry roundup!

Here, as usual, you'll find insights from industry leaders and our in-house category gurus on enhancing customer experience, lowering costs and improving efficiency and sustainability. In this edition you'll also find the latest information and technology on cold and flu prevention to keep your business productive right through the winter months.

That's not all. You can view our recent Cold & Flu Prevention Master Class, a webinar featuring Barley Chironda, Infection Control Specialist at Clorox Canada and our own David Smith, Cleaning, Hygiene and Sanitation Specialist. These experts explain how you can prevent a costly outbreak of flu and other unwanted viruses from sidelining your team this season.
